Nun Flees From Convent

Niagara Falis, Ont., Aug. 31.—Sister Leocadia, teacher of music at Mount Loretta convent, of Falls View, a mile south of here, has left that institution after spending more than twenty-five years within its walls, She is now said to be in New York city, where she is supposed to be sup-porting herself giving music lessons. Three months ago, it is said, she was sent to the Loretta abbey at Toronto, the mother house of the Loretta sisters in Canada, and did not reappear at Falls View.

As a child of eight, Margaret Coulter was placed in the convent. Her home was in Philadelphia. She was an orphan, with one brother living. She grew up to girlhood in the Mount Loretta convent and at sixteen be came a novitiate. She took the final vows five years later and became a teacher of music. She is a beautiful vomen with a charming disposition. It is said that Sister Leocadia had discussed with her relatives her wish carrying out her plans until she went to the abbey at Toronto, in which her uncle, Joseph Coulter, and a cousin, Mrs. Mabel Graham, were then living. It is said that she took one of her pupils into her confidence and clothng was smuggled into the abbey after she reached there.

When she left Toronto it is said she came to Niagara Falls and then went to New York .- Detroit Free Press.
